

Congratulations to ISRO and scientists on the successful soft landing of the Vikram lander and Pragyan rover. India is the first country to succeed in a soft landing on the South Pole of the Moon. We are proud of our scientists. ISRO scientists have taught us how to learn from failures and make them a tool for future successes.